

Coronavirus (COVID-19) is a respiratory illness that can easily spread from person to person.

During this time of the coronavirus pandemic, everyone should be self-monitoring, practicing good hygiene, and practicing social distancing.

Isolating/Quarantining in WSU Housing

Students entering isolation or quarantine on WSU campus must take the following steps:

1. Call Campus Health Center (CHC) to receive further guidance at 313-577-5041.
2. Watch for an email from Campus Housing with additional instructions.
3. Student is not to leave room for up to 14 days and will follow WSU Campus Dining process for having meals sent to room.
4. After the specified period, student is to call CHC to confirm ending isolation.
5. When isolation or quarantine is lifted, student is to confirm their isolation status with Campus Housing by emailing housing@wayne.edu.
